OBITUARY,

Mrs. George M. Fine. Mrs. Fanny M. Fine, wife of George M. Fine, manager of the Bradley theater, died in a Worcester hospital at 10 o'clock Thursday morning. The announcement came as a shock to her Waiter E. Ranger, commissioner of ducation for the state of Rhode Island; Valentine Almy, deputy commissioner of education of the same state. Pittsfield, Mass., June 17, and after a wedding trip of two weeks through the Niagara Falls region and the Thousand slands, came here to live.

Within a few days after her arrival n Putnam, Mrs. Fine became slightly ill, her health gradually failing until her condition became alarming. About three weeks ago she was removed to a Worcester hospital, where she was visited by some of the best specialists in the country and every modern meth-

Mrs. Fine was 22 years of age, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice M. Goldstein of Pittsfield, Mass., where her father is a prominent merchant.

Her death came as a shock to her relatives and many friends in Pittsfield, where she had not been able to go since leaving for her wedding journey, after a ceremony at synagogue Israel and a reception at her parents' home that was one of the brilliant social affairs of the summer season in Pittsfield. Mrs. Fine was a graduate of the Pittsfield High school and of the Pittsfield academy of music. She was a talented musician. During her brief residence here she formed a circle of acquaintances and soon made many friendships. Her death causes keenest sorrow to all these friends.
